

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

Millions of Monicas – Praying With Confidence For Our Children

Many of us have children who are struggling to embrace their Catholic faith or have left the church entirely. Like St. Monica, as mothers we persevere in prayer for their joyful return to full unity with the Catholic Church. We are not a support group or a self-help group. No sensitive information is shared. We believe that by coming together weekly, uniting our hearts and voices praying together, we can bring strength and joy to each other. We want to encounter God through prayer for ourselves and our children.

Join with other mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, Godmothers, etc., as we pray to grow in holiness and humility, and for our children's faithful return to the Catholic Church. We meet each Monday, 6:30-7:30 PM, at St Patrick's Church 1414 N King St., Wilmington, DE

PERSONALIZED PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENT

Good morning. I am _____ (your name). I am very excited to share with you about something new that is beginning in our parish community. It's called Millions of Monicas and it is a nationwide Catholic ministry led by mothers. It is for women that would like to gather together to pray for their children who have become disconnected from their Catholic faith. Like St. Monica, we gather as mothers, aunts, godmothers, grandmothers and confirmation sponsors and simply pray.

We pray for them to return to the practice of their Catholic faith as we pray to grow in humility and holiness ourselves.

Perhaps you are like me and have grown children that don't practice their Catholic faith and you are concerned about their salvation. As mothers we know the important role we play in our children's lives and many of us have tried all kinds of ways to get them back to church; often resulting in driving them further away. This is a chance for us to go from worrier to warrior, prayer warrior that is. United in prayer, we gather together and bring our intentions before the Lord, praying together for our children's return.

This is not a support group, and only the first and middle names of our children are shared. We will be on gathering in the church on (EXAMPLE Tuesdays from 1-2 pm in the church at St. Isadores Parish starting June 6th). There is no cost. All you need to bring is your rosary and an open heart.
